

Survivors Need a Range¹ of Housing Options

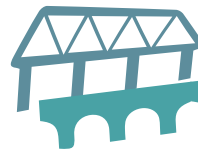

Survivors need to establish safety² & address their immediate crisis, this means access to temporary or emergency housing

Once safer,² address barriers to becoming and staying safely housed. This means bridge housing

Permanent Housing

then helps survivors to establish safety and lasting stability²

Transforming Our Coordinated Entry Systems to Increase Survivors' Access to Housing Options \(Billhardt, 2021\)

SAFE HOUSING
PARTNERSHIPS

National Resource Center on Domestic Violence

¹ There is no prescribed sequence & there may be overlap between types of housing

² Physical safety, essential human needs, social & emotional wellbeing